

SPECIAL PURIM BONUS - no extra charge!

From Paul Socken....

Mrs. Cohen goes to Ashleys and buys a fortune's worth of dinnerware. She has one request.

"Whatever you'd like, Mrs. Cohen, what can we do for you?" asks the sales lady.

"I'd like my name on the bottom of every cup, saucer and plate, please."

"I'm sorry, Mrs. Cohen, that's impossible. We can't do that."

"Why not, you did it for Mrs. Rosenthal!"

A woman and her husband interrupt their vacation to go to the dentist.

"I want a tooth pulled, and I don't want any pain killers because I'm in a big hurry," the woman says. "Just extract the tooth as quickly as possible, and we'll be on our way."

The dentist was quite impressed. "You're certainly a courageous woman", he says. "Which tooth is it?"

The woman turns to her husband and says: "Show him your tooth, Fred".

Things to Ponder.....

Why do we sing "Take me out to the ball game" when we're already there?

Why is it called "after dark" when it's really "after light"?

If work is so terrific, why do they have to pay you to do it?

If all the world is a stage, where is the audience sitting?

Why do we put suits in garment bags and garments in suitcases?

Why doesn't glue stick to the inside of the bottle?

If flying is so safe, why do they call the airport, the terminal?

I love being married. It's so great to find that one special person you want to annoy for the rest of your life.

I signed up for an exercise class and was told to wear loose-fitting clothes. If I HAD any loose-fitting clothes, I wouldn't have signed up in the first place.

Wouldn't it be nice if whenever we mess up in life, we could simply press Control, Alt, Delete and start over?

My wife says I never listen to her (at least, that's what I think she said).

If raising children was going to be easy, it never would have started with something called LABOUR.

Wouldn't you know it, brain cells come and brain cells go, but FAT cells live forever.

Adam and Eve had the ideal marriage. He didn't have to hear about all the men she could have married and she didn't have to hear about well his mother cooked.

From Irwin Diamond....

Our dear Rabbi recently lost his coat.....someone had accused Gene Coleman of taking the Rabbi's coat but it was later discovered that this accusation was completely baseless.....however Eli Rubinstein was recently seen in a nice coat that seemed a little tight on him

The rabbi did not give a drasha last week.....that is why he only had five seforim at his ready

Mazel tov to Chaim on an outstanding job on his bar mitzvah a few weeks ago.....however he skipped a key part of his speech since he had trouble pronouncing the word "veltenshang"

Editor's note: Irwin asked me if I received his submission, and what I thought about it. I told him it was good, but a bit short.

From David Spiegel...

Q. In the time of the Beis Hamikdosh, what would they do if they had to make a decision, and they weren't sure how to decide?

A: They would flip a cohen.

Q. What type of gas would you find in the Beis Hamikdosh?

A. "Korban" Dioxide

A bochur went to his Roish Hayeshivoh and asked if it was mutor to attend the opera. The Rebbi said: "You're not oiver until the fat lady sings".

From Shimmy Roth...

Medical Emergencies That Can Occur at a Wedding

Code Blue: While doing the bedecking, the chasan sees it's the wrong kallah.
Code Faint: You unknowingly invited the head of the tuition committee to your $100,000 wedding.
Code White: They lifted the chasan on a chair but couldn't pick up the kallah.
Code Don't Look: By accident the future mother-in-law is put at the kids' table.
Code Red: Three other women are wearing the same dress as the mother-in-law.
Code Oy Vay: The waiter accidentally served candy floss for dessert to a table of bearded Rabbis.
Code Grey: The photographer just remembered you didn't pay him for the last wedding!
Code Blind: One of the kallah's contact lenses accidentally fell into her soup and the waiter already cleared the table.
Code Oops: You forgot and put two brothers who haven't spoken for twenty year at the same table!
Code Brown: Six months of dieting is wiped out at the Viennese Table.
Code Baruch Hashem: The future mother-in-law took sleeping pills by accident instead of her blood pressure medication and slept through the whole wedding.
Code Gold: For the last sheva bracha, they called up Rabbi Goldberg, and three Rabbi Goldbergs came up.
Code Chas V'Shalom: The chasan, when breaking the glass, accidentally step on his mother-in-law's toe.
Code Oy Gevalt: While dancing, the mother-in-law's sheitel falls on the men's side of the mechitza.

From the editor.... Joke No. 1. Becky's grandson and his wife are coming to visit her for the first time. So she is giving him the directions to her condo. "I am in suite number 32 on the 14th floor. At the front door, you'll see a big panel of buttons. With your elbow, push button 32. I will buzz you in. Come inside, the elevator is on the right. Get in, and with your elbow, hit 14. When you get out, I am on the left. With your elbow, hit my doorbell."
"Grandma, that sounds easy, but why am I hitting all these buttons with my elbow?"
"What? You're coming empty-handed?"

Joke No. 2. Shmuel buys a fabulous mansion in Thornhill with over fifty rooms. He brings in a local workman to decorate the place. When the job is finished, Shmuel is delighted but soon after realizes that he's forgotten something. There are no mezuzahs on the doors! He immediately goes out and buys fifty kosher mezuzos and asks the decorator to place them on the right hand side of each door, except on the bathrooms. He's worried that the decorator won't put them up correctly. However, the job is carried out entirely to his satisfaction and so he gives the workman an extra bonus. As the decorator is walking out of the door he says: "Glad you're happy with the job. By the way, I took out all the guarantees that were in those little boxes and left them on the table for you."

Memories of Purim Past.... Can you name the three individuals in this picture? Email your answers to: bulletin@clantonpark.com. All correct answers will be entered into a draw. You may be a winner! Purim Sameach!!

